Got a pill in a stomach so tight
Wish I never had a loss that night
I can live through the wall's remain
Try to run but they always find me

Got a room with the devil inside
All the witness keep my secrets high
Whoopsy daisy I must have wilted 'cos
Everything's all tilted

I keep a little place in the back of my mind
I take a little trip and then you come alive
But as soon as I can
I find another reason again

Tether ball with my head on a leash
Keep me down with a shot of disease
I can live through the wall's remain
Try to run but they always find me

I'm a scar
I'm a tag-along toy
Make you company - I'm still that boy
Whoopsy daisy I must have wilted 'cos
Everything's all tilted

I keep a little place in the back of my mind
I take a little trip and then you come alive
But as soon as I can
I find another reason again
I keep a little place in the back of my mind
I take a little trip and then you come alive
But as soon as I can

I find another reason again

You don't wanna love me
You don't wanna love me
You don't wanna love me anymore
Bring it all one time

I'm alone and the sky's with a face

I'm the one with the full-man disgrace
I can live through the wall's remain
Try to run but they always find me
Live my life in a chain-linked fence
They can taste to prolong suspense
Whoopsy daisy I must have wilted 'cos
Everything's all tilted

I keep a little place in the back of my mind
I take a little trip and then you come alive
But as soon as I can
I find another reason again

I keep a little place in the back of my mind
I take a little trip and then you come alive
But as soon as I can
I find another reason again

You don't wanna love me
You don't wanna hurt me
You don't wanna love me anymore
Bring it all one time

Take it away
Oh, take it away
Again...
