"Breaching The Castle Wall"

Like a madman
Who beats a dead horse
I have wasted centuries
Looking for something
That doesn't exist
But no more
I have cut out my fucking eyes
I have searched until I fell
But there were no ivory towers
Only this unyielding stone wall
Like the carrion crow
Who bewails the dead sheep
I have wasted centuries
Sowing shut the eyes of the blind
But no more
For I have breached the castle wall.
