[I: Beast]

Man without law

His sulfur kingdom of the blind

Kill them all, their miserable lives

Slaughter of the innocence

Prodigal father exudes grace

[II: Blood And Roses]

Diabolical domain

Cruel with intentions of madness

Harvest the spirits of the dead

Dripping with blood filled tears

Dead man who walks eternal is alone

His endless beauty cut to ribbons

Ritual desire, blissful games won

[III: Diseased]

Disgustingly deformed birth

Sickness and disease he gives

The haunting scarlet formed

Mutant cunts, rotten faces

Amputation of the soul

No mouths to speak

Gifts of torture welcomed

Emotional chaos, parallax views

Death upon the earth given pleasure

[IV: Vanity]

His vanity vile, the egotist unequalled

Mirror of the beast

Chronicles of Mort have begun

Dynasty of the master

Torturer of a thousand generations comes

You're going to die

[V: Death]

Fear in gods children exposed

Evaporating life, walking sick

Wounds calling for self destruction

Deadly shadow of the killing spree

Feed me, taste me

Destroy his memories, now dead

Children of the dark born

[VI: Ulcer Man]

You walk behind

Dead inside and falling

Silence now found

Beast of the apocalypse

Tears of man obsessed
