I got all the right credentials still I don't belong
I do all the right things maybe
I just do 'em wrong

Advances spurned
their backs are turned against us x2

CH
I can't pretend I know what to do
I never have been or will be one of you
dry conversation, no common ground
I see their lips move, but I don't hear a sound.
we waste our smiles.

V2
Another awkward introduction,
I don't know what to say,
I'm a walking interruption
I should go away.

Advances spurned
their backs are turned against us x2

CH
I can't pretend I know what to do
I never have been or will be one of you
dry conversation, no common ground
I see their lips move, but I don't hear a sound.
we waste our smiles.

Bridge:

Don't tell it to the doctor
Don't tell it to the nurse
Just tell it to my baby
He's the one that makes it hurt
