"Soap In A Bathtub"

Visit "Soap In A Bathtub" on MotoLyrics.com

I only touched your love
As the tips of my fingers tried to clutch your love
I'm sick of this soap in a bathtub love
I need something to hold (ah ah)
I feel deluded
As once again I am eluded
And everything is left unconcluded
I need something to hold

Chorus:

And we know you're there
Somewhere in these murky waters
If you just showed us where
You'd bring to life all that you taught us
Do you just sit and stare?
I know that you're longing to be found
Isn't that what you want?

I adore your love
But it's snakes and ladders looking for your love
Fakes and bladders claim to be your love
I don't want the fools gold (ah ah)
But I'm in in danger
I'm hungry, angry, lonely and a stranger
I'm livin la vida loca lone ranger
I need something to hold

(Chorus)

Isn't that what you want?
