Well I got my clothes in my suitcase, right by my side Come tomorrow morning baby I'm taking a ride And I'm going to Austin Lord I'm gonna make it my home, yes I am
And my baby she'll be wondering where I'm at Lord
when she wakes up all alone

Well I drank my share in this town baby I smoke my shit too
And that's all right my momma I said anywhere you do
And I'm going to Austin Lord I'm gonna make it my home, already gone
And my baby she'll be wondering where I'm at Lord
she wakes up all alone
