it's constant
subjection to genre
we will remain ever changing in a sea of social tidal wave why? not I now, I'm gonna get me some Starbucks coffee and bury I under piles and piles of mediocre drop D this scene of cookie cutter HXC

it repeats it all starts to sound the same to me unfortunately let's be real for just a second Dallas, Texas, the scene rejects us all types of races and sexes agree we suck but it don't affect us boys in girls pants will hardcore dance to the trance of my chemical romance we'll be in the back cleaning off our pants from throwing up through all of this not that cool, not with the times no gay hair or belt, but I got the rhymes electronic shit will never be in if we lose the keys we'll get a bigger crowd than 10

I will fit in
I will fit in
I will fit in, just follow the trend

now I'm cool
I cut my hair and I squeezed into some tight pants who wants to fuck me now?

I hate oh IIIII
IIII hate Ohhhhhh IIIII now, I will cry and cut myself

'cause my life is harder than everyone else and go straight edge, and reject drugs no wonder my life fucking sucks no hardcore dancing in the living room

I hate this scene that I'm inside and it hates/loves me mutually
