It starts now
With the press of a key it begins
Making everything else seem like nothing
Console a cartridge within Deliverance
I waste
Countless hours and night
Searching for the triad of life

And the knife a level 60 strike straight through the eyes enemy i despise X2

I waste
Countless hours and night
Searching for the triad of life
Searching for the triad

Of life

Things have never been the same X2

Hyrule
Mushroom kingdom
So many wasted days and then some

Now im gonna yell some shit randomly
Like a hardcore song
But were not a fucking hardcore band

So alive
So completely consumed in the static all night
So alive
Chased away by the break of the day

Press start
Game over
