so ill continue to pick up the phone when its 3:30 in the morning cause i know who it is.
and i sware its the worst thing when from a distance
can you only promise me alone.
and i can only tell you itll be alright
and i can only hope that its enough to get you throught the night i wont break, if you dont fall so write me when youre gone and baby call me as soon as you get home and i promise you, that well make it through if you promise me that youll listen and somehow were not so far apart.

i cant take it, i hope that we make it cause i cant live with this finger pointing at myself again and i cant take it, i hope that we make it just know youre not in this alone.

will you continue to pick up the phone
will you know who it is.
and when i sware its the worst thing
when from a distance
can you only promise me alone.
