for all the times when i cant seem to get a grip on my own life i know youll feel the same maybe im wrong cause i see right through you and i always do, and im sorry.

im still hoping that you can finally figure out your life the world gets harder when you cant wait and then speeds up when all i need is a break and it goes away

and i waited tonight, i wanted to try
and it goes away
and ive waited tonight, i wanted to try youre not the only thing alone when all the times you thought you were so dont let yourself give yourself away tonight.

cant seem to get a gripe on my own life i know youll fell the same
and just cant tell whats right.

and it goes away
