take a second, to hold your breath take a step back, and listen cause its the little things that we forget i think its happening too often and the last thing that i would want to do is drive the oppisite way of you.

and tonight i use this cup as my platform for big things im thinking did you take into consideration i dont get to see you too often
is drive the opposite way of you

i looked up and noticed that youre gone so fast youre gone so fast and..
dont describe the water as i drown in it and i drown in it tonight.

is drive the oppisite way of you.
youre gone so fast and..
and i drown in it tonight...

so tonight, i fall asleep to thought that i will be dreaming of you again
so tonight, i fall asleep to thought that i
will be dreaming of you again
