There's an old man sat by a window
Waiting for his wife to come back from the Car with the keys and the money

There's a girl trapped in sweet conversation
The type that leads to nothing more than trouble

And they're all washed
With whites and greens
Blues and yellows
And they all dance
Back and forth
Back and forth, like mice

There's a couple sat by a
Window hand in and so still..
Since the wife got back
From the car with the money

And they're all washed
With whites and greens
Blues and yellows
And they all dance
Back and forth
Back and forth, like mice

Another 5 years of this
And I'd go mad
Treading in the same old
Worn out circles

Another 5 days of this
And I'd go mad
Treading in the same old
Worn out circles
