"Beautiful"

She was over the top and out of control
She ran away at 13 years old
But she had her feet on the ground
And nobody pushed her around
Her mommy said "you'd better be a good girl"
Her teacher said "you better turn around"
And everyone said "the girl's a trouble maker"
And all she would ever say was "ain't life beautiful"
She was under the influence of "Out Of The Blue"
And all those crimson colors stand up and salute you
She is the one with the smile
The angel wearing devilish looks in her eyes
Her mommy said "you'd better be a good girl"
Her teacher said "hey, turn that music down"
And everyone said "the girl's a trouble maker"
And all she would ever say was "ain't life beautiful"
She will crawl around and be a shame
And she, had better get used to it
She was over the top and out of control
Big girls were not built to walk the straight and narrow
She is the one wearing the crown

And everybody wants her around

And all she would ever say was "ain't life beautiful"

And all that she would ever say was "ain't life beautiful"
(x3)

Mommy said she always was the best

Teacher said "I turned that kid around"

And everyone said "yeah, I used to fuck her"

And all that she'd ever say was "beautiful"

(Life is) Beautiful...

She said "Take life, take life, ain't life, beautiful"
(repeat & ad-lib)

Life is so beautiful
