He tugs my lips into his mouth
I find his tongue and I draw it out
He tastes like watered down red wine
And he fills up my head with little Christmas lights
Over and over again
He takes me down and I crave penetration
Me knees are sore up to the thigh
My lips are all bitten, my eyes are dry
It's so dark in here how can one finds one's way
I will crawl on the floor to you like a snake
Over and over again, he takes me down
And I crave penetration from my hair to the ground
My body, mind and soul, he leaves me wide open
Over and over I crave penetration
(Repeat last verse)
Over and over...
