Ithaca is hidden far,

Beyond the horizon eternity awaits

I feel burning desire

To go where no man has gone before

This is the curse upon me

A madness whose name is love for knowledge

"Volta la nostra poppa al mattino

Dei remi facem ali al folle volo"

Raging waters are shaking the ship

And the sailors are too old

Wrinkled are the hands holding the oars,

They surrender to punishment divine

Sail for one last time

"Della nova terra un turbo nacque

E percorse del legno il primo canto

Tre volte il fe girar con tutte l'acque

Alla quarta levar la poppa in suso

E la prora ire in giu, com'altrui piacque

Infin che l'mar fu sopra noi richiuso"

[Chorus:]

... And the wind shall scream my name

Forever in time

The memories will live on

... And the wind shall scream my name

As water steals my words left unspoken

I see my friends going down

In the afterlife maybe I will find some new shores

Hercules columns,

Their silhouette shall seal my cold grave

The sea, my only lover,

Will tell the world Ulysses' story

Sail for one last time
