Trod as slaves by the tyrant canes
Laid in chains, scars and blood
All the years I've suffered in pain

Forced by the guards to serve their lords
Pride they can't afford
Trapped in hell, the master's hand
Signs of justice, broken men

Fight, stand proud, gather to strike
Rebellion of slaves, ye shall arise
Freedom in thy eyes, a heart filled with pride
We're breaking the chains of slavery
The tyrant falls tonight

I won't cringe to the false
I hear the cries of my brothers
Heed the call of the fight
Won't kneel again, rather die

[Solo: Kai]

Fight, stand proud, gather to strike
Rebellion of slaves, ye shall arise
Freedom in thy eyes, a heart filled with pride
We're breaking the chains of slavery
The tyrant falls tonight

[Solo: Lars/both/Scott]

[Kai:]
Freedom, the cry in my blood
I hear the call of my gods
Brothers out in the fields
Remember the whips that forced us to kneel
Raise your fists to the sky
Hail the gods up high
Swear the oath of revenge, free our clans
And break the chains forever

[Kai/Lars:]

Slavery's chains will be broken
The irons will falle, falle downe to the grounde
Overwhelming the guards, tearing their weapons
Face to face with the lordes, the tyrants are founde
Raising the sworde, wielding the axe
Hammers in handes, hailing the gods for our freedom
The masters will die, the chains will be burned
Freeing the brothers, vengeance shall be done

[Solo: both/both]

[Lars:]
I won't cringe to the false
I hear the cries of my brothers
Heede the calle of the fighte
Won't kneele again, rather die
[Kai&Lars;:]
None shall crosse our pathe
Our freedom shall laste
The warrior comes forthe
Quarter and tomente the lorde

Fighte, stande proude, gather to strike
Rebellion of slaves, ye shall arise
Freedom in thy eyes, a hearte fill'd with pride
We're breaking the chains of slavery
Fighte, stande proude, gather to strike
Rebellion of slaves, ye shall arise
Freedom in thy eyes, a hearte fill'd with pride
We're breaking the chains of slavery
The tyrant falls tonighte
