look i aint tryna just let you go im just tryna let you know that i need you in my life but all we do is fight but im sure me and you can work it out let talk about... are problems and the things we are facing but you not listen to me and what i keep on sayen why dont you tell me what i do wrong and how to overcome this cause i dont wana nother girl you the only on my list and i knowwww if you you let this go ima be all alone and my heart is so froze dont tell me its over dont tell me your done because im not finished loving you please dont go on a run im pacing im stressing im aken ive learned my lesson

(Chorus)

why dont you see the fires out
the time is runnin out
tell me what to do
your name is on my mind i got no more love left in me i need you right here to come redeem me

(verse 2)

no love just pain in darkness the fights and yells have left me heart less i never go back to that is that and im jump right back on track im show you just how i can mack cause you dont ever listen to me when i try to explain you just laugh a matter a fact ima let it burn ima let you learn to take a you turn in the fron of your drive away you can pack your bags cause right theres the highway im walking out the doors of it all to take this pressure off make the hard go soft let me hear you cry let me feel your pain dont even try cause ima make it rain im go insane wihtout you me waking away we be o so crazy cause there aint no lady callin me baby on the on the regullar you can walk away its up to you cause ima do mee

and you can do you (Chorus)
i need you right here to come redeem me (verse)
me and you should work things out but you aint never down to listen and you always gotta shout im just tryna be a better man yess im your verteran take two looks you gave up and got retired im maybe shady but my cold lights ya fire i took you to the place you aint never seen to hoping out those limozine and my g5 flights
