Save this life for me and don't let go.
A place you kept me and now I feel all alone.
Things are running differently in our own minds
And everything you told me I tried to leave behind.

I can't help but feel this pain inside my mind running.
I can't help but feel this love in my mind.

Now it's built up in my head as I let go.
You feeling tingly inside and now you're froze.
You start thinking back on what you have done.
And now it's time to realize that it was wrong.

I can't help but feel this pain inside my mind running.
I can't help but feel this love in my mind. oh whoa
owhoa-oooh

Passionate.
Passionate.
Passionate.
Passionate!

I can't help but feel this pain inside my mind running
I can't help but feel this love inside my mind running
I can't help but feel this pain inside my mind running
I can't help but feel this love in my mind, oh whoa
owhoa-oooh
