ten years down destiny foretold senses drown dreams are wide and gold increase my mind beginning to be sold sacred ties have never felt so cold but the introduction never had a name and all the answers to my questions never came

but i found my reason to shed my skin and i'll never say those words again cause i beg for mercy and i cry my sins but i'll never say those words again never again

ten years found treasure i could hold embrace the crown his broken wings unfold words divide connected to the soul burning inside this disenchanted world

never again

never again will i be the one to hang on every word you say and i'll never feel the same i'll never feel this way cause the introduction never had a name and all the answers to my questions never came (they never came) they never came

those words again
never again
