I cannot feel my face this time.
I cannot make this feel like something more than nothing this time.
Can I open my eyes and make it seem like perfect, flawless
something more than nothing?

One life
Follow me.
Too long to watch this burn
One life together
We will face this world as one.

Now my eyes are open wide
I felt that final touch of belief
Respect for what's building this time
Now you feel it for yourself
Now this products four for one
Now this feeling is something more than nothing.

One life
Follow me
Too long to watch this burn
One life together
We will face this world as one

Something changed
I will stand up
Show the world who the fuck I am
Genuine inside
Fuck hands they dealt you
One life
This is the hour
It's time to let it go
