"Emotions And Anger"

Always higher always better
Always in the run to perfection
A strong desire of complete dedication

Looking up to this wide open sky but stickin' to the ground
Moving one step closer to our dreams
And such awaited moments of absolute freedom
Priceless images invaluable memories

Will we ever see the end of such sinuous ways?
Givin' a try and everything we have is our best answer
Driven by our deepest emotions and anger

Winning battles losing some but always gaining ground
Led by determination and our rooted convictions
Such hard decisions to make along the way
At any cost we'll make it to the end

Will we ever see the end of such sinuous ways?
Givin' a try and everything we have is our best answer
Driven by our deepest emotions and anger
