"Had Your Chance"

You had your chance you didn't seize it I'm sorry that you're taking it that way I hope someday you'll get to realize How I was right and not take it too hard You're feeling like your time and feelings were wasted Not analyzing the reasons why we've given in

You can ignore the facts the whole truth and reality
I'll take the blame on me while you deny responsibility Will you dare to look right at yourself at your face in the mirror?

Unrewarded sacrifices is what you got left at the anticipated end of the story And it takes much more than what you've got despite the countless efforts
We knew it all right from the start but couldn't not give it a try

You can ignore the facts the whole truth and reality
I'll take the blame on me while you deny responsibility
Will you dare to look right at yourself at your face in the mirror? [x2]
