"Blue And Grey"

will you take me out for a ride let me sit down beside you as we're moving along tell me why the moon follows me it runs behind the trees now
i'm in a quest for truth don't deny me
it won't be too hard for you to find me here as i'm watching it all trickle down lost love i can find you turn back the clock i'm behind you in blue and in grey as i'm watching it all fade away show me what you hold in your hand is it my understanding that you meant it this way you say it's a thing of the past sure was a pain in the ass now did you want it this way
