"Light Of Love"

There's an ocean out my window, oh the sound of restless waves
I could breathe this air forever cause I feel you in this place
Never thought I'd live alone by the time I was 33
Guess I was wrong but that ain't a new thing to me I'd rather be right just like anybody else, but I still have to live with myself
Well you know I'd rather be lost in love instead of found
You can see I've followed love all around
There's something in me that can never get enough
It's a funny kind of thing, first I'm down then I'm up
I wish somebody could explain the light of love
Chorus:
The light of love is somewhere waiting
Lose the breath you're saving
Feel like celebrating for love
I should have known the world was saying
Raise your head it's raining
Some day boy you'll see there's enough
This is some kind of day, I thought it was summer in July
But so much rain, it's like a cold winter sky
I'd love it this way if I wasn't here alone
Have another glass of wine and let her go
I'm alone ooh I'm lonely as I hear the seabirds call Seven islands sail before me
I guess I'm not alone at all
Well you know I'd rather be lost in love instead of found
You can see I've followed love all around
There's something in me that can never get enough
It's a funny kind of thing first I'm down then I'm up
I wish somebody could explain the light of love
It's a funny kind of thing
First I'm down then I'm up
I wish somebody could explain the light of love
Chorus
There's enough
Cause there's love
