[Verse 1]

Be a part of an institution
Lead the way in a revolution
Wear a wig and a permanent smile
Be a part of a celebration
Make the plans or the cancellation
Quick decisions
Let's change our minds

[Hook]

Well, there's people out there
But, it's people we are
We're just faces from different places
Drinkin juice from mason jars

I'm on a mission responsible
Say your good-byes

[Verse 2]

Be a father of no relation
Or be a symbol for procreation
Strike a match and there's sure to be fire
Be a part of your situation
Blame yourself for your frustration
Dig a hole till you lose your desire

[Hook]

Well, there's people out there
But it's people we are
We're just names playing different games
Drinking coke and eating candy bars

I'm on a mission responsible
Say your good-byes

Well, i'm finding anything's possible
Closing your eyes
Closing your eyes
Closing your eyes

Be a part of your own decision
See your future with tunnel vision

Take a chance if you want to survive
You do want to survive, don't you?
Be the talk of a conversation
Your a superstar out of isolation
Get the keys
It's your turn to drive

[Hook]

Well, there's people out there
And it's people we are
We're just voices with different choices
Smokin dope and rockin' out on guitars

I'm on a mission responsible
Say your good-byes
Well, i'm finding anything's possible
Closing your eyes

[Verse 3]

Well, i'll put it all to rest
Now this shit is off my chest
And everytime I turn around
I don't see trees falling down
And there's someting that we shoud buy
I think i'd rather have the oxygen

Well, i'm sure you would agree
Although you seem to fight with me
But, there's a situation here
That doesn't seem to want to dissappear
And the nothing
No it won't go away
And we we we we we must must must do something
Now people
Not tomorrow, yesterday

If someting ain't right here
Than its never to late
To make a change
Understand that if there's work to be done
Than it starts with number one
That's you

[Verse 4]

So smile
But, please don't believe the only lie
That even the government cheats
And shit
It's poison
It kills your mind and your soul
And we have lost control

Now you see that we can't go along
'Cause I can see it in the eyes of world leaders
And they're all wrong
And every single word that they write
And that's what I'm going to fight
To survive

And it's my only desire
To elevate the spirit and cultivate the higher
Rhythms and rhymes
For living
Is blind
And in an alternate reality it's trapped up in your mind
Freedom

[Outro]

I'm on a mission responsible
Say your good-byes
I'm on a mission responsible
Say your good-byes
