The day when I was born
My father said - Hei du!
It was a Monday morn
On the sofa, in the stu.
He took me in my Å_r
Said - I know akkurat
What the boy shall gjÅ_r
The little kamerat

Cause he shall
Spikk a bittle little little litt (Spikke litt!)
Spikk a bittle little little litt (Spikke litt!)
Spikk a bittle little little litt
Just bit by bit, litt after litt
Cause he can
Spikk a bittle little little litt (Spikke litt!)
Spikk a bittle little little litt (Spikke litt!)
Spikk a bittle little little litt
Just bit by bit

Outside my barndomshjem
You noticed all the fjÅ_len
And everyone of them
Was spikka te of sjÅ_len
Yes, when I was a little
A bitte little en
My father spÅ_kk a fiddle
Best among all men

Cause he could
Spikk a bittle little little litt (Spikke litt!)
Spikk a bittle little little litt (Spikke litt!)
Spikk a bittle little little litt
Just bit by bit, litt after litt
Cause he could
Spikk a bittle little little litt (Spikke litt!)
Spikk a bittle little little litt (Spikke litt!)
Spikk a bittle little little litt
Just bit by bit

And out there in the kjÅ_kken

My mother skar some bread
A humble bread was lykken
And this is what she said -
My son, you must l  v me
Not to end up in a grillbar in the middle
Of nowhere cooking pomfritter,
Cause best of all to be -
It is to be a spikker.

It is to
Spikk a bittle little little litt (Spikke litt!)
Spikk a bittle little little litt (Spikke litt!)
Spikk a bittle little little litt
Just bit by bit, litt after litt
It is to
Spikk a bittle little little litt (Spikke litt!)
Spikk a bittle little little litt (Spikke litt!)
Spikk a bittle little little litt
Just bit by bit, litt after litt
It is to
Spikk a bittle little little litt (Spikke litt!)
Spikk a bittle little little litt (Spikke litt!)
Spikk a bittle little little litt
Just bit by bit
Spikk a bittle little (Spikk a bittle little)
Spikk a bittle little (Spikk a bittle little)
Spikk a bittle little (That's a funny tittel)
Spikk a bittle little (Det var det kapittel)

Spikk a bittle little!
Spikke a bittle little
