Another night another bender
No control and no surrender
Wake up trying to remember all my wrongs
I ain't looking for forgiveness
Fucking up is how I live this life
'Cos otherwise it lasts too fucking long

Stopping by the bar for one (yeah right!)
Now I'm blackout drunk on a Monday night
Black eye wonder why was it from falling or a fight
I guess I'll never know
Tomorrow though I'll get another chance to get it right

Line 'em up boys and we'll knock 'em back down (hey!)
Knock 'em back down
Knock 'em down
And pour the next round
Line 'em up boys and we'll knock 'em back down you know
Line 'em up boys and we'll knock 'em back down (hey!)
Knock 'em back down, Knock 'em down, who's got the next round
Line em up boys because this life moves way too slow

Poisoned every morning from a thousand drunken sins
Been 86'd from places that I swear I've never been This ain't a social mission I'm not out here making friends
But baby if you're buying then I'll love you til the end
But then my manic gets 180 jaded
Looking for a fight
Hey who said that's your lady
Ask her where she was last night
One I come up swinging
Two I hit the floor
Three I'm back up at the bar
To ask that motherfucker for one more

Line 'em up boys and we'll knock 'em back down (hey!)
Knock 'em back down
Knock 'em down

And pour the next round
Line 'em up boys and we'll knock 'em back down you
know
Line 'em up boys and we'll knock 'em back down (hey!)
Knock 'em back down, Knock 'em down, who's got the
next round
Line em up boys because this life moves way too slow

Another night Another bender
Was it a sunny summer evening
Or a cold night in December
The lights they start to flicker
For my halfway open eyes
I hear last call
It's a familiar lullaby
One more for the record books
I guess we gotta go
Will somebody please just point me the fuck towards home

Well all right I guess if you insist
I'll have another pint and know
There ain't no place that I'm being missed

Line 'em up boys and we'll knock 'em back down (hey!)
Knock 'em back down
Knock 'em down
And pour the next round
Line 'em up boys and we'll knock 'em back down you
know
Line 'em up boys and we'll knock 'em back down (hey!)
Knock 'em back down, Knock 'em down, who's got the
next round
Line em up boys because this life moves way too slow

So here we go!

Line 'em up boys and we'll knock 'em back down (hey!)
Knock 'em back down
Knock 'em down
And pour the next round
Line 'em up boys and we'll knock 'em back down you
know
Line 'em up boys and we'll knock 'em back down (hey!)
Knock 'em back down, Knock 'em down, who's got the
next round
Line em up boys because this life moves way too slow
Line em up boys because this life moves way too slow
