I used to try to make something out of nothing,
Whatever it is I was doing wasn't working,
But now I see because my eyes are finally open,
You were meant for me.

Like a thief caught cold in the light,
I was headed left but you got me going right,
You woke me up in the middle of my life,
You were meant for me.

And you changed me,
And you changed the way,
You changed the way I look at love,
And you changed me,
And you changed the way,
You the way I look at love.

So here I go you got to be talking about forever,
When up till now all I ever said was never.
So who would've thought we could ever be together
You were meant for me.

You stuck around when everybody else was sleeping,
It's so hard finding someone to believe in,
You're the only reason my heart is still beating,
You were meant for me,

And you changed me,
And you changed the way,
You changed the way I look at love,
And you changed me,
And you changed the way,
You the way I look at love.

You shook me up,
And I never saw me shaking,
It's just enough,
Now my heart's unbreaking,
You were meant for me.

And I know and I know I fçâ, -â™ II always feel this way. (x2)

Ohh fçâ, -ã, â! whoa fçâ, -ã, â! oh fçâ, -ã, â!

And you changed me,
You changed the way,
You changed the way I look at love.

You changed me,
You changed the way,
Yeah you changed the way I look at love

And you changed me,
You changed the way,
You changed the way I look at love. (x2)
