So you say that you ain't got nothing
Don't you know that I've been there before?
I been living on the outside for so long
And you say that your hearts been broke
And you tell me it won't happen no more
She'll be living it up now before it's gone

So when you're going down that road,
Don'tcha know that no ones made of stone?
You'll never walk alone!
You'll never walk alone
(yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah!)

Life comes down on you
(when you really don't need it)
Time goes passing through
(and you really don't see it)
It's like when you're going down that road
(it's like when you're going down that road)
Don'tcha know that no ones made of stone?
You'll never walk alone!
You'll never walk alone
(yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah!)

Now what you gonna do?
(now that you're believing)
Nothing left to loose
(so you say that you don't need it)
Inside when there's nowhere left to go
(inside when there's nowhere left to go)
Don'tcha know that no ones made of stone?
You'll never walk alone!
You'll never walk alone

And you say that you ain't got nothing
Don't you know that I've been there before?
I been living on the outside for so long
And you say that your hearts been broke
And you tell me it won't happen no more
She'll be living it up now before it's gone

Inside when you're going down that road
(inside when you're going down that road)
Don'tcha know that no ones made of stone?
You'll never walk alone!
(yeah!)

(you'll never walk alone!
You'll never walk alone!
You'll never walk alone!
You'll never walk alone!
You'll never walk alone!
You'll never walk alone!
You'll never walk alone!
You'll never walk alone!)
Life comes down on you!
What you gonna do?
