I know a man who like to notice the sky
There is no life in his body, I don't know why
Hate and pain is all that he can see and feel
And always says I will never have a future, he said
I can't have illusions anymore
I would like to live my own life
I never needed to hear your theories
So you can go and fuck your fucking life
He tried to close his eyes and say goodbye to his life
Because he hated everybody all the time time Hate and pain are increasing inside his body without life
So he cried so much and asked himself why
I can't have illusions anymore
I would like to live my own life
I never needed to hear your theories
So you can go and fuck your fucking life
I can't have illusions anymore
I would like to live my own life
I never needed to hear your theories
So you can go and fuck your fucking life
I would like to live my own life [x2]
I never needed to hear your theories
So you can go and fuck, and fuck your fucking life
And fuck your fucking life
