Watching you every time
With your own way to live
I feel I really hate you
Deep inside
Your selfish ego and everything in you made me think

What I want and what I have to do
Is to break your world made of dreams
What I want and what I have to do
Is to break your world made of nothing

Wake up for it
We always walk side by side
Our world is kind of a constant war
So I know there's no paradise
And there's no peace and love
There's no peace and love

What I want and what I have to do
Is to break your world made of dreams
What I want and what I have to do
Is to break your world made of nothing

Yeah!

Go!

There's no paradise
There's no peace and love [2x]

Yeah!

Hey!
