She wants to go [x2] forever
She wants to go to another place
To find what is lost
Her body is full of nothing and her heart is full of pain
She couldn't be conformed about what happened
She still cries a lot and now she lives just of memories
I know some day she'll smile again
I hope one day we can be together
And I'll think of you forever
I'll think of you forever [x3]
She wants to go [x2] forever
She wants to go to another place
To find what is lost
