I don't want to say
To say anything to you
But I tried hard to get your attention
I don't want to say
One day you'll listen to me
Even though you don't do anything to make it better

Why don't you look at me, face to face?
Don't close your eyes to me
If you think my words are not enough
Get out of here and don't look behind
Don't look behind

Now you're being followed by
By the ghost of my words
Making you feel like there is no way out [2x]

Why don't you look at me, face to face?
Don't close your eyes to me
If you think my words are not enough
Get out of here and don't look behind
Get out of here and don't look behind
Get out of here and don't look behind
Don't look behind

Why don't you look at me, face to face?
Don't close your eyes to me
If you think my words are not enough
Get out of here and don't look behind
Get out of here and don't look behind
Get out of here and don't look behind
Don't look behind
