Go!

Living today you may be strong and close your eyes to smile

So that I just can hate and just can try to make my ideals become true

Or you can sit at home (and) crying and praying for your only (fuckin') god

To save this dirty world [x2]

Guilty, guilty, guilty of being buried under your own
shit [x2]

I just look at your life and I know exactly how I don't want mine

Thank you for being so perfect, but admit, you're so

Guilty, guilty, guilty of being buried under your own
shit [x2]

I just look at your life

And I know exactly how I don't want mine

shit [x2]

Guilty [x5] of being buried under your own shit
