"Rainy Day"

It's not you. It's not me.
Something is out of control
So common and just let me know
What could be worst in a rainy day?

Because now, every word
Can fuck it up, with what we build
Don't wanna lose those years away?

Time goes by. Things can change, so do I

When you've heard "forget about"
You should have believed in what I said

Have you ever thought of?
A new fight has just began
Today's weather means our relationship
But you don't care about it
