"Measure Of Consequence"

Visit "Measure Of Consequence" on MotoLyrics.com

Raging your eyes seeking cleansing for their disease hatred suffocating reason the ground cries out for the spirit broken erased by aberration turn the pages of sacrifice blood cursed with retribution to the blind a cancer but for chosen generations memories to sorrow for their souls a lamentation therefore he has come for Christ is comfort forevermore forevermore countless numbers of bodies raped of their lifetime and end to families through heritage survives a lifeline voices that call through seasons carry timeless a measure of consequence never again to create the cycle ever again denying their lives please help us oh Most High to never again see through those eyes take heart oh Israel for we stretch forth hands come to you as offerings of hope you you
