Huh

She lay down, with her sister.
All dressed in white, she will keep you in the night.
Rips in her stitches, silver in the dark.
My head it aches, and sanity, my sanity is all she takes.

Your love so heady, your love far from free.
I'm cold and sore, you filthy whore, let me be.
On Mandy's lips, an acid taste, no sweetness there at all.
And Mandy's eyes, black endless pits, through which I fall.

I'm taking a beating, from my screaming heart.
If only I knew the hell surrounding you, from the start.
I've been here so long now, I must be reaching the peak.
Oh Mandy, why must you insist, you know how I'm so weak.

Huh

My sanity, my sanity is all she takes.
My sanity, my sanity is all she takes.
My sanity, my sanity is all she takes.
My sanity, my sanity is...

My sanity, my sanity is all she takes.
My sanity, my sanity is all she takes.
My sanity, my sanity is all she takes.
My sanity, my sanity is all she takes.
My sanity, my sanity is...

All she, all she, all she, all she takes.

All she, all she, all she, all she takes.
