History begins in Bethlehem.
Away in a manger
No crib for a bed
How his fame expressed
How he raised the dead
Made the blind to see
The world was free
He's all you need
He's all you need
He's all you need
The Answer The Answer
They laughed at you
A crown of thorns on his head
They hit his face with the fist
They stripped his clothes and spit
Made him carry the tree
They laughed in glee
Drove the spike threw his hands and feet
They crucified my king
But he forgave us everyone
Till the morning, mornings sun
All the things we think were fighting for
Are already done
The demons danced
The sprits played
But God stood fast to secure that day
He rose from the grave
Your world is safe, safe and sound if you believe
Rather than rocks on
The war is won
