I don't know what to do but I have a few ideas
I'd like to play with
I finally have the option to destroy or salvage
Something I have gained
And I'm no longer tempted
Feel exempted from the pressures of a life time
So, I'll have my fantasies and let them take me
Where they'd like to go

I am content to have my bad days
No longer need to hide the pain
Lady it's time to go

I always knew the secret but I'd keep it to myself
Until it killed us
For when I was alone with you I'd trouble finding words enough to say
You never really changed it, the arrangement wasn't
What I had in mind
And even though I loved you I had friends and time
I needed even more

Life is ahead for you and me
We have to be alone to see
Lady it's time to go
Lady it's time to go
Lady it's time to go
