

Stuart Davis

"Female Friend"

Visit "Female Friend" on MotoLyrics.com

Sitting in the sound booth's ambient glow the engineer sees a woman he knows "Stephen, this is someone you should meet She's a DJ, her name is Mary - you'd make a match"
"Well yea," we joke, "Too bad we're both attached" I stare at her and float out of my seat
But she's just staring at the soundboard dials and I'm all smiles

Chorus:

I make a female friend and the minute it occurs the adrenaline flows and the boundaries blur They keep it all platonic and I wish I could but her hair's too soft and she smells so good If I act decent, that's pretend I really wanna sleep with my female friends

It's somebody's birthday and we attend enter me and my girlspouse In the course of the evening everybody's introduced In particular my old roommate was standing with his wife by the snack plate I hugged her longer than she wanted to When she pulls away everybody in the house sees I'm aroused

Chorus

That grocery girl bags my food and I imagine her nude

Chorus

Visit Stuart Davis page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.