What's to see but the secret?
Crystal balls sittin' in your sockets What's to feel but the presence?
Shakti fields surge in your circuits

Steep it, cook it
Love is an oven
A couple ones
and I could bake you eleven Shake it, cut it open a vessel
a couple wounds
could give you a vinyard

What's another bruise in the belly,
Can't you take a punch like a lover,
don't you wanna dance in the gutter,
For the flower of a zero?

Daddy likes polishing a pistol Mother digs fingerin' her bible Sister's stuck under an uncle I got a brother down bingin' in the basement

Shakin' shadows outta the mortals duke it out until the Devil is dizzy breakin' knuckles fuckin' climbin' a spiral diggin' jewels outta the jungle

What's another bruise in the belly
don't you wanna bleed like a mother
for the flower of a zero?
What's another spike in a muscle to a couple kids in a riddle fallin' outta hell like the petals from the flower of a zero?

Flower, Zero

Baby why do we do this?
We've already been through this we're all Jesus and Judas especially the Buddhists
But I keep feedin' the fantasy God I'd love a lobotomy before I murder the Mystery
I need you to lift me
Above all the shit I've learned show me the way without a word
Forget about halos
Forget about heroes
Flower, zero

for the flower of a zero?
What's another spike in a muscle
to a couple twins in a riddle there's nobody here but the petals from a flower of a zero

Flower, zero
