Tonight it got drunk and looked at the monkeys till the jungle closed It went to a hot spot it picked up a robot and took off all its closed its eyes and fantasized it was Just a human girl, just a human girl to lead a demon out of hell

Just a human girl, takes a human girl to save a human from his self

It got outta work and went to the circus to watch the tigers pace it sat in the lot just connecting the dots floating out in space until they turned into the face

Of a human girl, just a human girl
to lead a demon out of hell
to save a human from his self

It's almost a man, it's almost alive It's almost a man alive Here she comes Here she is

Just a human girl, takes a human girl

In the light, in the light as she kissed me was the end, was the end of the history in the birth, in the birth of a mystery in the love, in love as she lifts me It's over, It's over Baby, I'm human
