"Miss Me"

It's always meant so much to me to mean so much to you As I'm sure you were aware And lovers' eyes in countless tries attempt to capture souls But with you my hands were bare I would give my world to thee but the world won't give me you so I've taught myself to steal And the way you act in front of me when we act in front of them, there's a side you won't reveal I never asked for all your time just the time alone with me I never wanted everything just what we know was meant to be

Chorus:

I don't wish you to miss me baby but that's just how you'll feel when in a lonely stare you'll become aware you passed up what was real, And I don't wish you to cry now baby but that's just what you'll do when you finally see you were meant for me and I was meant for you

I know it's so much easier to run from love like ours his simple mind I'm sure you'll find will leave you free of scars So you take the road of safety to free yourself of rules and you never keep what we hold deep and soon become the fool If I've only been your jester to keep you so amused then I fear you've missed the chance for bliss and got the two confused

Chorus

You gave him such devotion in return he gave you lust while I poured out emotions and begged for you to trust You gave yourself completely you showed him how you cared while the one you knew was meant for you took what little time you'd spare I know I'm not your only one but I'm the one who's meant to be And God knows I have tried so hard but I can't make you see

Chorus

I don't wish you to miss me baby....
I don't wish you to cry now baby...
