Thriving on rejection, hungry for the sting the love that's wrong is the one I long and the emptiness it brings

Break away this heart of clay, ignore my silent plea you're my vice and I'll sacrifice my self identity

Chorus:

You're what I need in a shallow liar to fuel my fire and a hollow heart to feed I'm not alive until I'm deprived by your selfishness and greed So lead me on and I'll be your pawn you're the traitor I pursue Sit and laugh when I'm cut in half if I wait for love that's true, I'll never love with you Lead me into nothingness, guide me to nowhere strip me clean of my self esteem take away my will to care

Mock the naked soul I show to you make me sit and wait treat me cruel and I'll be your tool to syphon off your hate

Chorus

I'm on the verge of sorrow, on the edge of true remorse
so push me into torment and let nature takes its course

Chorus
