I try to stay awake
when the world is dark cause when I dream of you I wake up with marks Mother says it happens falling out at bed

More like falling from the stars that's where all my nightmares are

You're too ugly to be angels
but you hide in the sky
Grays

You don't look like ghosts should too stiff and small but I don't know what else could float right through the wall Three bony fingers scrawny little limbs

God made your bodies the wrong size to have those great big oval eyes

You're too ugly to be angels
but you hide in the sky
You're too ugly but maybe you are
