"Locked Away"

Visit "Locked Away" on MotoLyrics.com

Maybe the rain will stop today
Heaven shouldn't really seem this far away
There might be reasons, you've gone away
We all have a reason, we all have something

Locked away, hidden from the light.
There must be something left inside alive.
When are you coming home?

Maybe the pain will stop today
Heaven shouldn't really seem this far away
There might be reasons, that you've gone away
We all have a reason, we all have something

Locked away, hidden from the light.
There must be something left inside alive.
When are you coming home?

Locked away, hidden from the light.
There must be something left inside alive.
When are you coming home?
When are you coming home?
