Woke up this morning with a pain in my head i need a doctor and a white linen bed i'd call for help if only I could and I know that this can't be good i know that this can't be good to be the eye of a needle in the eye of a storm surrounded by chaos since the day I was born and I'd strike that day from the books if only I could because I know that this can't be good

but if I had money and if I had fame generosity and goodness would follow my name if I had patience and if I had grace i'd help everyone that I could but I know that this can't be good ain't got wheels, so I'm walking, when I'm walking it rains when it rains it pours and I'm stuck here again i'd leave in a second, you know that I would because I know that this can't be good

the salvation army would know me by name if I had freedom and a little good luck i'd help everyone that I could

and a winner draws a crowd, but you're alone when you lose i could use a hot meal and a new pair of shoes i can hang laundry, scrub floors and chop wood and I know my prospects ain't good
and I've always been misunderstood
