Millions and millions and millions of planets in the universe
have life just like earth they got death and birth

of years came and went
of lives have all been spent without no rent
they didn't have to pay no rent

chorus:
the whole world isn't ready the whole world isn't ready to sing along the whole world isn't ready at all

of stars up above
of ways to show your love when push comes to shove you gotta show your love

of songs yet to be sung
of hearts yet to be won they don't have no fun and we're all one

love, love, love is the only thing worth a damn and love, love, love makes me who i am not uncle sam
he doesn't know who i am
