She's a perfect little princess and everyone agrees so they're dropping their defenses dropping to their knees everyone's in love with her she's redefining "cool" but she'd sell you in a heartbeat so don't be fooled

chorus :
don't you know that she's alright?
this is no emergency
she's alright
she's alright
this is no emergency
she's alright

she's sifting through her summer clothes and the boys will think she's fine but she can laugh back in their faces for thinking she's that kind she never gave permission she's stamping her little feet and she's asking for recognition from everyone she meets

she's daddy's little angel and everyone should know to get out of her way when she's putting on a show but I'm standing in your spotlight breaking all your laws stealing all you one-lines receiving your applause
