Well that's fine!

Well that's it and that's the way life goes, no lie
I sit back and I wonder why
I only think of the shit I've done
It's like I'm bleeding my life away
Someone told me one time
If I only love myself, I can't love no one else
But she's wrong cause I really love to hate her
Well I can't admit and I can't see
That I'm always wrong
And I might look back at my life
As one sad song
But it's these times I love
When I'm the one that I only think of
When push comes to shove
You better pick up them gloves
Better show 'em no love
And just say,

"PRE-CHORUS"

That's fine
Cause I'm going to get mine

"CHORUS"

You can't break me down
And take this from me
I'm gonna make you bleed

I'm selfish
So that way everybody knows
What's mine is mine
And what's yours is yours
You can't beat me down
You can't break me down
And take this from me
Its always seem so
That everybody I know
Is a slave to the dough
Full time for the dollar sign
Partners in crime

With you green envy eyes
Don't try to disguise
I see through your lies
I won't be around next round
And this is true
But before I go I want you to know
This shits for you
Well it's a dog eat dog world
A do it for yourself world
And to thy own self be true
Better pick up them gloves
And just say, That's fine!

"CHORUS"

I'm bleeding myself dry
I'm selfish, I can't hide
What you see, it isn't me
I'm selfish to you , cause I'm selfish for me
I'll make you bleed
Can't you see
You take my life away
I'm selfish and I'll sing my song my way
I'm selfish, so fucking selfish
I'm only selfish when you take my life away
"CHORUS"
I'm gonna make you bleed
Bleed, bleed, bleed, I'm gonna make you bleed
You Motherfucker
